INDEX

Volume XII: October, 1932 – June, 1933

Administration of the Curriculum, The, Jesse H. Newlon, 474-480

ALMACK, JOHN C., Scientific Method in Teaching, 321-324

Arithmetic Combinations, An Experimental Study of the Teaching of, Claire Zyve, 16-18

Arithmetic Problems, The Measurement of Accuracy of Judgments of the Difficulty of, Leo J. Brueckner and Gerold S. Laumann, 338-345

Arithmetic Reasoning and Arithmetic Computation of a Supervisory Program Emphasizing Computation, The Effect Upon Pupil Achievement in, Ethel E. Smith and William H. Burton, 267-271

Art Education, How the General Supervisor May Train Teachers in Service for, Helen M. Howell, 198-204

BAILEY, LAURA C., Fitting the Library to the School, 1-8

BALLARD, C. R., see DAVIS, ROBERT A.

BELSER, BIRDIE A., Illustrations of Creative Ability in Language, 146-152

BIGELOW, ELIZABETH B., A Study Made from the Results of the Stanford Achievement Test in Grade Two, 232-235

BRUCE, WILLIAM F., Two Curriculum Concepts —Building and Growing, 420-426

BRUECKNER, LEO J., and GEROLD S. LAUMANN, The Measurement of Accuracy of Judgments of the Difficulty of Arithmetic Problems, 338-345

BURTON, WILLIAM H., see SMITH, ETHEL E.

"Cadet" System for the Young Neophyte Teacher, Why the, A. R. Mead, 483-485

Causes of Failure and Success in School, Joseph Miller, 364-366

CHASE, LAWRENCE S., Supervisory Problems in the Organization of a School on the Cooperative Group Plan, 346-351

CLEARING HOUSE, THE:
Education for World Friendship in the Schools of Minnesota, Georgina Lommen, 45-48; A Plan for Teaching Seventh Grade Spelling, Catherine Urell, 49-51; Home Work in the Riverside Intermediate School, L. J. Hauser, 104-106; The Attitude of Intermediate-Grade Children Toward Departmentalization, Lettie S. Whaley, 106-107; An Experiment in Objective Testing, Ethel A. Willman, 107-112; A Brief Outline of the Unit Plan of Teaching, Byrne J. Horton, 175-177; The Good Health House, Margaret J. Walker, 177-178; A Teacher Thinks About Supervision, C. A. Pugsley, 236; Two Sixth Grade Units: 1, A Grecian Banquet; 2, Creative Poetry Book of the Middle Ages, Charlotte C. Lang, 237-239; The Netherlands—A Social Studies Unit for the Third Grade, Viola Moseley, 239-243; Conservation with the Talkie Camera, Paul R. Eberhardt, 301-302; Philippine Islands—A Fourth Grade Unit, Isabel M. Johnston, 302-305; Did the Pupils Fail? Grover C. Hooker, 367-368; Health Thoughts, Vesta Farmer, 368-369; The Play My School Had, Sara Coleman, 369-370; A Kindergarten Activity, Edna B. Freed, 433-436; Unit on the Early History of Kalamazoo; Unit of Work in Third Grade Community Life; Fifth Grade Club Unit; The Olympic Games, Zoe C. Shaw, 488-494; A Sixth Grade Geography Project, Gertrude Kellogg, 554-555; Meeting Individual Difference Problems, 555-557

COLE, WILLIAM E., see MOORE, CLYDE B.

COLEMAN, SARA, The Play My School Had, 369-370

Comparison of Three Types of Organization in the First and Second Grades, Kenneth M. MacLeod, 354-359

Competition in Education, Charles C. Guilford, 546-553

Coöperative Group Plan, Supervisory Problems in the Organization of a School on the, Lawrence S. Chase, 346-351

Coöperative Teaching in Public Schools, Ernest Peffer, 467-472

COURTIS, STUART A., What is Progressive Education and What Are Its Implications for Public Schools? 544-546

Creative Ability in Language, Illustrations of, Birdie A. Belser, 146-152

Creative Teaching, Preventive Supervision for, William T. Melchior, 519-525

Creative Work, Some Experiments in Group, Mrs. Lawrence M. Russell, 297-300

Curriculum, Building an Elementary School, Mabel E. Simpson, 82-88

Curriculum, The Administration of the, Jesse H. Newlon, 474-480

Curriculum Concepts—Building and Growing, Two, William F. Bruce, 420-426

DALTHORP, CHARLES J., Shall We Rate Teachers? 78-81
DAVIS, ROBERT A., and C. R. BALLARD, The Effectiveness of Various Types of Classroom Incentives, 134-145
Defensible Management, Harry S. Ganders, 295-296
Depression's Challenge for Educational Reconstruction, The, Douglas B. Miller, 65-73
DEWEY, JOHN, Education and Our Present Social Problems, 385-390

EBERHARDT, PAUL R., Conservation with the Talkie Camera, 301-302
EDITORIAL COMMENT AND REPORT:
The Best Defense; The Principals Meet in Atlantic City, 52-56; Idols of the Times, 113-121; The Technique of Teaching; What Are the Essentials? 179-184; Reading Skills, 244-247; What Schools Are Meant? Prevention Rather Than Cure in Supervision; The Art Side of Testing; Program of Thirteenth Annual Meeting of Department of Supervisors at Minneapolis, 306-311; Social Science in the Elementary School Curriculum; Records, 371-374; Whose Government is This? Annual Meeting of Department of Supervisors and Directors of Instruction at Minneapolis; A Meeting of the Membership Committee of the Department; The Work of the Committee on the Emergency in Education; The Principals' Bulletin; The Crisis in the N. E. A., 437-443; Progressive Education Gets Another Scolding; Comments on Dr. Cox's Editorial, 495-504; The Schools, the Children, and the Future; Fads and Frills in the Curriculum; Meeting of Supervisors in Chicago, 558-563
EDMONDSON, J. B., Some Obstacles to Instructional Changes in Our Secondary Schools, 457-461
Education and Our Present Social Problems, John Dewey, 385-390
Effectiveness of Various Types of Classroom Incentives, The, Robert A. Davis and C. R. Ballard, 134-145
EGINTON, DANIEL P., Manners Maketh the Man, 164-167
Extra-curricular Activity Program for a Public Elementary School, An, Irene L. Stern, 530-543

FARMER, VESTA, Health Thoughts, 368-369
FIRMAN, SIDNEY G., A New Technique, 211-214
FITZGERALD, JAMES A., Situations in Which Children Write Letters in Life Outside the School, 223-231
FORD, GUY STANTON, Who Administers Our Schools? 449-457
FREED, EDNA B., A Kindergarten Activity, 433-436

GANDERS, HARRY S., Defensible Management, 295-296
GOODYKOONTZ, BESS, Units of Work and the Individual, 74-78; The Integration of the Activities of Various Supervisors Dealing with the Same Groups of Teachers, 257-261
GUILFORD, CHARLES C., Why Pupils Fail, 219-222; Competition in Education, 546-553

Handbook, Preparation of a Teachers', John S. Thomas, 360-363
HAUSER, L. J., Home Work in the Riverside Intermediate School, 104-106
HERRON, ALLEN M., The Relative Importance of the Duties and Activities of the General Elementary Supervisor in City Schools, 325-332
History, Do Objective Tests Measure Understanding and Comprehension in United States, W. A. Saucier, 161-164
History, The Determination of a Minimal Vocabulary in American, L. C. Pressey and S. L. Pressey, 205-211
HOOKER, GROVER C., Did the Pupils Fail? 367-368
HORTON, BYRNE J., A Brief Outline of the Unit Plan of Teaching, 175-177
HOWELL, HELEN M., How the General Supervisor May Train Teachers in Service for Art Education, 198-204

Indeterminate Statement, The, C. C. Weidemann, 173-174
Individual Differences in a Large First Grade, Development of a Technique to Provide for, Clara Tutt, 271-275
Integration of the Activities of Various Supervisors Dealing with the Same Groups of Teachers, The, Bess Goodykoontz, 257-261
International Relations, Teaching, Paul Monroe, 513-519

JACKSON, DOROTHEA, see REYNOLDS, HELEN M.
JAGGERS, R. E., State Supervision of Rural Schools, 332-337
JENKINS, ALBION U., A Technique of Social Adjustment, 26-30
JOHNSTON, ISABEL M., Philippine Islands—A Fourth Grade Unit, 302-305

KELLOGG, GERTRUDE, A Sixth Grade Geography Project, 554-555
KELTY, MARY G., The "New" Content of the Social Studies in the Secondary School, 461-466

LAKE, CHARLES H., The Coördination of the Work of the Principal and the Supervisor, 391-397
LANG, CHARLOTTE C., Two Sixth Grade Units: 1, A Grecian Banquet; 2, Creative Poetry Book of the Middle Ages, 237-239

LAUMANN, GEROLD S., see BRUECKNER, LEO J.
LAUTENSCHLAGER, THURMAN H., School Dust, 288-290
LEWERENZ, ALFRED S., Measurement of Pupil Behavior in the Classroom, 98-103
Library to the School, Fitting the, Laura C. Bailey, 1-8
Literary Background as a Factor in the Teaching of Literature, Early, Blanche Jennings Thompson, 262-266
LOMMEN, GEORGINA, Education for World Friendship in the Schools of Minnesota, 45-48

MACLEOD, KENNETH M., Comparison of Three Types of Organization in the First and Second Grades, 354-359
Manners Maketh the Man, Daniel P. Eginton, 164-167
MEAD, A. R., Why the "Cadet" System for the Young Neophyte Teacher? 483-485
MEAD, CYRUS D., What Would You Do? Supervisory Problem Number One, 37-40
Measurement of Pupil Behavior in the Classroom, Alfred S. Lewerenz, 98-103
MELBO, IRVING R., How Much Do Students Guess in Taking True-False Examinations? 485-487
MELBY, ERNEST O., Can We Be Creative in Supervision? 129-133
MELCHIOR, WILLIAM T., Preventive Supervision for Creative Teaching, 519-525
Mental Hygiene Case Studies, A Suggested Formulation of, Frederick L. Patry, I, 19-25; II, 89-94
MILLER, DOUGLAS B., The Depression's Challenge for Educational Reconstruction, 65-73
MILLER, JOSEPH, Causes of Failure and Success in School, 364-366
Modern Assignment, The, Charlotte Prichard Tinker, 291-295
MONROE, PAUL, Teaching International Relations, 513-519
MOORE, CLYDE B., and WILLIAM E. COLE, The Status of Rural Supervisors of Instruction in the United States, I—The Supervising Personnel, 9-16; II—The Professional Preparation of Rural Supervisors, 95-98; III—Some Administrative Aspects of the Work of Rural Supervisors, 153-155; IV—Supervisory Activities, 215-219; V—How Rural Supervisors Measure Their Supervision, 285-287; VI—The Nature and Number of Requests for Supervision, 351-354; VII—Some Supervisory Difficulties of Rural Supervisors, 397-399
MOSELEY, VIOLA, The Netherlands—A Social Studies Unit for the Third Grade, 239-243

NEWLON, JESSE H., The Administration of the Curriculum, 474-480
New Technique, A, Sidney G. Firman, 211-214

PARKER, CLAUDIA, and EVELINE WATERBURY, Reading Disability, 411-419
PATRY, FREDERICK L., A Suggested Formulation of Mental Hygiene Case Studies, I, 19-25; II, 89-94; A Psychobiological Balance Chart, 400-411
PEFFER, ERNEST, Coöperative Teaching in Public Schools, 467-472
PRESSEY, L. C. and S. L. PRESSEY, The Determination of a Minimal Vocabulary in American History, 205-211
Principal and the Supervisor, The Coördination of the Work of the, Charles H. Lake, 391-397
Progressive Education and What Are Its Implications for Public Schools, What is, Stuart A Courtis, 544-546
Psychobiological Balance Chart, A, Frederick L. Patry, 400-411
PUGSLEY, C. A., A Teacher Thinks About Supervision, 236

READER'S GUIDE, THE:
57-64; 122-128; 185-192; 248-256; 312-320; 375-384; 444-448; 505-512; 564-572
Reading Disability, Claudia Parker and Eveline Waterbury, 411-419
Reading Objectives, Functional, Nila Banton Smith, 427-432
Record of Successful Teaching, A, Chester L. Whitner, 472-473
RESCHKE, LUVELLA KREGEL, The Humanistic Movement in Supervision, 41-44
REYNOLDS, HELEN M., and DOROTHEA JACKSON, Supervision and Creative Teaching in Seattle, 167-172
RILEY, ROMANA, Student Participation in School Administration as Carried Out in "Midget Savannah," an Elementary School, 31-37
Rural Schools, State Supervision of, R. E. Jaggers, 332-337
Rural Supervisors of Instruction in the United States, The Status of, Clyde B. Moore and William E. Cole, I—The Supervising Personnel, 9-16; II—The Professional Preparation of Rural Supervisors, 95-98; III—Some Administrative Aspects of the Work of Rural Supervisors, 153-155; IV—Supervisory Activities, 215-219; V—How Rural Supervisors Measure Their Supervision, 285-287; VI—The Nature and Number of Requests for Supervision, 351-354; VII—Some Supervisory Difficulties of Rural Supervisors, 397-399
RUSSELL, MRS. LAWRENCE M., Some Experiments in Group Creative Work, 297-300

SAUCIER, W. A., Do Objective Tests Measure Understanding and Comprehension in United States History? 161-164

Scholastic Efficiency Rating, A Practical, Howard R. Williams, 155-160
School Dust, Thurman H. Lautenschlager, 288-290
Scientific Method in Teaching, John C. Almack, 321-324
Secondary Schools, Some Obstacles to Instructional Changes in Our, J. B. Edmonson, 457-461
Shall We Rate Teachers? Charles J. Dalthorp, 78-81
SHANNON, J. R., Corrective and Creative Supervision, 193-197
SHAW, LENA A., and MANLEY E. IRWIN, A Study of Good and Poor Writers, 275-284
SHAW, ZOE C., Units of Work in Kalamazoo Elementary Schools, 488-494
SIMPSON, MABEL E., Building an Elementary School Curriculum, 82-88
Situations in Which Children Write Letters in Life Outside the School, James A. Fitzgerald, 223-231
SMELTZER, C. H., Educational Engineering in Testing and Diagnosis, 526-530
SMITH, ETHEL E., and WILLIAM H. BURTON, The Effect Upon Pupil Achievement in Arithmetic Reasoning and Arithmetic Computation of a Supervisory Program Emphasizing Computation, 267-271
SMITH, NILA BANTON, Functional Reading Objectives, 427-432
Social Adjustment, A Technique of, Albion U. Jenkins, 26-30
Social Problems, Education and Our Present, John Dewey, 385-390
Social Studies in the Secondary School, The "New" Content of the, Mary G. Kelty, 461-466
Stanford Achievement Test in Grade Two, A Study Made from the Results of the, Elizabeth B. Bigelow, 232-235
STERN, IRENE L., An Extra-curricular Activity Program for a Public Elementary School, 530-543
Student Participation in School Administration as Carried Out in "Midget Savannah," an Elementary School, Romana Riley, 31-37
Study of Good and Poor Writers, A, Lena A. Shaw and Manley E. Irwin, 275-284
Supervision and Creative Teaching in Seattle, Helen M. Reynolds and Dorothea Jackson, 167-172
Supervision, Can We Be Creative in, Ernest O. Melby, 129-133
Supervision, Corrective and Creative, J. R. Shannon, 193-197
Supervision for Creative Teaching, Preventive, William T. Melchior, 519-525
Supervision of Rural Schools, State, R. E. Jaggers, 332-337
Supervision, The Humanistic Movement in, Luvella Kregel Reschke, 41-44
Supervisor in City Schools, The Relative Importance of the Duties and Activities of the General Elementary, Allen M. Herron, 325-332
Supervisor, The Coördination of the Work of the Principal and the, Charles H. Lake, 391-397
Supervisory Problems in the Organization of a School on the Coöperative Group Plan, Lawrence S. Chase, 346-351
Supervisory Program for the Superior Teacher, A, Ruth Vivian Whitacre, 480-482

Testing and Diagnosis, Educational Engineering in, C. H. Smeltzer, 526-530
THOMAS, JOHN S., Preparation of a Teachers' Handbook, 360-363
THOMPSON, BLANCHE JENNINGS, Early Literary Background as a Factor in the Teaching of Literature, 262-266
TINKER, CHARLOTTE PRICHARD, The Modern Assignment, 291-295
True-False Examinations, How Much Do Students Guess in Taking, Irving R. Melbo, 485-487
TUTT, CLARA, Development of a Technique to Provide for Individual Differences in a Large First Grade, 271-275

Units of Work and the Individual, Bess Goodykoontz, 74-78
URELL, CATHERINE, A Plan for Teaching Seventh Grade Spelling, 49-51

WALKER, MARGARET J., The Good Health House, 177-178
WATERBURY, EVELINE, see PARKER, CLAUDIA
WEIDEMANN, C. C., The Indeterminate Statement, 173-174
WHALEY, LETTIE S., The Attitude of Intermediate-Grade Children Toward Departmentalization, 106-107
What Would You Do? Supervisory Problem Number One, Cyrus D. Mead, 37-40
WHITACRE, RUTH VIVIAN, A Supervisory Program for the Superior Teacher, 480-482
WHITNER, CHESTER L., A Record of Successful Teaching, 472-473
Who Administers Our Schools? Guy Stanton Ford, 449-457
Why Pupils Fail, Charles C. Guilford, 219-222
WILLIAMS, HOWARD R., A Practical Scholastic Efficiency Rating, 155-160
WILLMAN, ETHEL A., An Experiment in Objective Testing, 107-112

ZYVE, CLAIRE, An Experimental Study of the Teaching of Arithmetic Combinations, 16-18

in,

Im-
the 325-k of 391-n of Plan,

cher,

eer-

ners'

iter-ning

As-

Stu-
185-e to rge

dy-

Sev-

use,

ate-

me-ali-

lem

ro-

ful

an-

19-tic

ec-

the 18